

Department of Classics
Proposal for Honors Project
CLASS 4721/4722, 8 Credits

Submit (3 copies) to Linda Brown in the department office, 120 Goldwin Smith

Name: _____

Email: _____

Local Telephone: _____

Check your major track:

- Classical Civilization
- Classics
- Greek
- Latin

Attach to this form your formal proposal of no more than 5 pages. Include the following components:

1. Description of project.
2. Preliminary Bibliography:
 - a. primary texts;
 - b. at least 3 relevant and important books or articles.
3. Statement of the significance of your project in the field.
4. Timetable for research.
5. List of relevant background for your project (courses, term papers, etc.)
6. Copy of a term paper relevant to your project.

Signature of supervisor of the project: _____

Signature of your major adviser: _____

Please note:¹

¹ A word about credit: You earn a total of 8 credits and two courses for consistent work on an honors project. An "R" on the transcript indicates satisfactory progress at the end of the first semester. The letter grade applies to all 8 credits. You must register for CLASS 4721 in the fall and CLASS 4722 in the spring semesters for the total credits of the honors course, namely 8.